Put into past tense, negate and form questions.

I make a birthday cake in the evening.

Mitvergangenheit.

Verneinung.

Frage.
The children are good at skiing.

They pack their suitcase. (regular verb)

The new hat is five pounds

Bob takes Mandy to town.

The Millers go to Italy.
Standard /2ab/ revision

Read the text and complete it with the time expressions: suddenly, finally, yesterday, then, twenty minutes later

Mr and Mrs. Pitts went to the best restaurant in town.

The owner of the restaurant welcomed them and led them to the best table. “Enjoy your evening,” he said and smiled. Mr. and Mrs. Pitts ordered tomato soup for a starter. The waiter went into the kitchen. “We haven’t got any tomato soup,” the chef said. “But there is some chili soup in the fridge.

The soup’s the same colour as tomato soup. They won’t notice.” (Sie werden es nicht bemerken)

When the soup arrived, Mr. And Mrs. Pitt thanked the waiter. They started to eat. Mrs. Pitts was very hungry.

But oh, no! It was so hot. She went red in the face and felt very ill. After three glasses of water she felt better. She noticed that something was wrong with her husband.

He looked at his plate. There was a spider on it.

Complete the dialogue with some or any.

Dan Mum, have we got chocolate ice cream in the fridge?

Mum No, I don’t think so. But there’s strawberry ice cream left.

Dan I don’t like strawberry. Can I have cheese cake?

Mum No it’s for Aunt Susan. Don’t cut it now, please.

Dan Have we got chocolate?

Mum No, we haven’t got chocolate. Have fruit.

Dan Have we got bananas?

Mum No, but there are grapes, pears and apples.

Dan OK, I’ll have grapes then.
Fill in: some or any.

She bought ................. new trousers.

They haven’t got ............. boys in their class.

He never does ................ homework.

Would you like ................ more tea?

Can I have ....................... of these toffees? Yes, just help yourself.

He wants to ask ..................... questions.

Can I have ......................... lemon juice in my tea, please?

Can you give me .................... information, please.

You can phone me ............... time you like.

I’m going to buy .................... eggs.

I’m not going to get ............... meat.

There isn’t ...................... ice in the fridge. Please, go and get ......................

The children didn’t make ................ mistakes.

Would you like ............... tea now or would you like ...................... beer?

I ate .......................... hamburgers but I didn’t like them.

I can pay for you. I have got .................. money with me.

There aren’t ...................... trees in this town.

They don’t have ................... children.

You have got ...................... nice rings.

Are there ...................... birthday cards for me this morning?

I haven’t got ..................... stamps but Jill has got ......................

I am thirsty. Can I have ...................... tea, please?
LEVEL TWO

III. Fill in: some or any

1. I put _____ sugar in my tea but I didn't put _____ milk in it.
2. If I had _____ stamps I should give them to you.
3. Are there any oranges? Yes, I've bought _____.
4. May I offer you _____ more tea?
5. You may take _____ book from the shelf.
6. I went for _____ envelopes, but I didn't see _____.
7. I didn't bring _____ napkins, but we needed _____.
8. She bought _____ perfume. Did she also buy _____ shampoo?
9. Mother planted _____ vegetables, but she didn't plant _____ flowers.
10. _____ juice got on the floor.
11. I want to go shopping but I haven't _____ money. Give me _____ please.
12. He had learnt French for _____ years before he went to France.
13. I have _____ more pages for you to write.
15. Put _____ sugar in your coffee. I haven't put _____.
16. I need _____ paper.
Fill in: some or any.

She bought .......... some .......... new trousers.

They haven’t got .......... any .......... boys in their class.

He never does .......... any .......... homework.

Would you like .......... none .......... more tea?

Can I have .......... some .......... of these toffees? Yes, just help yourself.

He wants to ask .......... some .......... questions.

Can I have .......... some .......... lemon juice in my tea, please?

Can you give me .......... some .......... information, please.

You can phone me .......... any .......... time you like.

I’m going to buy .......... some .......... eggs.

I’m not going to get .......... any .......... meat.

There isn’t .......... any .......... ice in the fridge. Please go and get .......... some ..........

The children didn’t make .......... any .......... mistakes.

Would you like .......... some .......... tea now or would you like .......... some .......... beer?

I ate .......... some .......... hamburgers but I didn’t like them.

I can pay for you. I have got .......... some .......... money with me.

There aren’t .......... any .......... trees in this town.

They don’t have .......... any .......... children.

You have got .......... some .......... nice rings.

Are there .......... any .......... birthday cards for me this morning?

I haven’t got .......... any .......... stamps but Jill has got .......... some ..........

I am thirsty. Can I have .......... some .......... tea, please?
Put into past tense, negate and form questions.

I make a birthday cake in the evening.

Mitvergangenheit. I made.

Verneinung. I didn’t make.

Frage. Did I make? 2

The children are good at skiing.

The children were.

The children were not. I weren’t.

Were the children? 2

They pack their suitcase. (regular verb) "ed" anhängen.

They packed.

They didn’t pack.

Did they pack? 2

The new hat is five pounds.

The new hat was.

The new hat wasn’t. Was the new hat? 2

Bob takes Mandy to town.

Bob took Mandy.

Bob didn’t take.

Did Bob take? 2

The Millers go to Italy.

The Millers went.

The Millers didn’t go.

Did the Millers go? 2
Read the text and complete it with the time expressions: suddenly, finally, yesterday, then, twenty minutes later.

Yesterday Mr and Mrs. Pitts went to the best restaurant in town.

The owner of the restaurant welcomed them and led them to the best table. "Enjoy your evening", he said and smiled. Mr. and Mrs. Pitts ordered tomato soup for a starter. The waiter went into the kitchen. "We haven't got any tomato soup," the chef said. "But there is some chili soup in the fridge."

The soup's the same colour as tomato soup. They won't notice." (Sie werden es nicht bemerken)

When the soup .......finally ...arrived ....twenty minutes later ..., Mr. And Mrs. Pitt thanked the waiter. USF ...then ...they started to eat. Mrs. Pitts was very hungry.

But ......oh, no! It was so hot. (scharf) She went red in the face and felt very ill. After three glasses of water she felt better. SUDDENLY she noticed that something was wrong with her husband.

He looked at his plate. There was a spider on it.

Complete the dialogue with some or any.

Dan Mum, have we got ......ANY chocolate ice cream in the fridge?
Mum No, I don't think so. But there's ......ANY strawberry ice cream left.
Dan I don't like strawberry. Can I have ......ANY cheese cake?
Mum No it's for Aunt Susan. Don't cut it now, please.
Dan Have we got ......ANY chocolate?
Mum No, we haven't got ......ANY chocolate. Have ......ANY fruit.
Dan Have we got ......ANY bananas?
Mum No, but there are ......ANY grapes, ......ANY pears and ......ANY apples.
Dan OK, I'll have ......ANY grapes then.